Sunday 7/27/41

Dear Allan,

Sorry I didn't find out about McNulty appointment until too late to call you Friday. He was in court until 6 Phila. time. As you know, he got a fast conviction.

Anyway, we can see him any time Tuesday, approximately. The arrangement I made is that you'll let me know approximately when you'll be here and then his secretary will set a specific time at about that time. He'll be in his office until 5:30 our time, but I think you ought to try and make it for the early afternoon, our time, to allow for unforseen contingencies, such as an appearance in court (Transocean counsel announced they are taking an appeal).

Anyway, please wire me and let me know.

I have done the Inside Click piece, but I'm not mailing it now because it is so awful hot here that I'm not going all the way to the Post Office to mail it, as I'd have to. I'll give it to you Tuesday.

Also, I'd suggest that if you want to call the piece about the pretty girl to the attention of people here who are interested in such things, you bring a little with you. While it is perhaps now a bit premature, there are nonetheless some reasons why you might want to. It might help a little in some places.

Yours

Harold
